WHITE PINE.—I DESIRE TO CALL THE ATTENtion of those who have money to invest to that erceedingly valuable property located at Treasure City, White Pine county, Nevada, and Known as the Mississippi Mine. This mine is among the earliest found in that wonderful silver mining country, having been located July 14, 1898. This mine carries as well defined vein of free metal of proven value, five rest in thickness and of marvelous richness. Increable as it may seem, the first class ores give a yield of upwards ($1,800) safe to say that all ores in this mine will give an average yield, fully up to the already famous "Beenland;", or ($700) seven hundred dollars per ton. The vein of metal stands not far from perpendicular. It has been followed down nuneteen feet. A drift.five feet shows a continuous ore body of wonderful richness. No such opportunities for legitimate silver mining have ever been offered to this community. For further details and information apply at 25 Pine street, office of
